

Itinerary

This year, the proceeds of the tournament will support Community Living Oshawa/Clarington in its mission to promote inclusion and enhance the quality of life for individuals with intellectual disabilities. With a steadfast commitment to fostering opportunities, independence, and meaningful connections, the organization has spearheaded numerous programs and initiatives that empower people to thrive within their community. By contributing to Community Living Oshawa/Clarington, your generosity directly impacts individuals and families in Clarington, ensuring that essential supports and advocacy remain accessible and create a more inclusive society.
